Coordinating professional liability and cyber risk is a critical challenge for many life science companies.

BIO and Aon have teamed up to address this challenge and provide comprehensive coverage for Executive Liability and Cyber Insurance programs.

Executive Liability Panel

When a management committee or individual assumes responsibility for a company's business operations, they are exposed to directors and officers and fiduciary liabilities among others. Through the BIO-Aon program, members benefit from multiple carriers with extensive life science experience and coverage including:

- Directors & Officers Liability Insurance,
- Crime Liability Insurance,
- Fiduciary Liability Insurance, and
- Employment Practices Liability Insurance.

Cyber Panel for Network Security & Privacy

Aon also offers cyber risk insurance policies with direct access to data breach consultants for life science companies that suffer data breach events.

Other coverages offered through the BIO-Aon program include:

- Affirmative coverage for clinical data restoration,
- Broad Business Interruption coverage,
- Business Interruption coverage to include interruption of operations due to an order from a regulatory body (i.e. FDA), and
- Expansive Claim coverage, including dispute resolutions and investigations regarding FDA proceedings and foreign equivalent.
