About BIO

- The Biotechnology Innovation Organization (BIO) is the premier biotechnology advocacy organization representing biotech companies, industry leaders, and state biotech associations in the United States and more than 35 countries around the globe.
- BIO members range from biotech start-ups to some of the world's largest biopharmaceutical companies – all united by the same goal: to develop medical and scientific breakthroughs that prevent and fight disease, restore health, and improve patients' lives.
- BIO also organizes the BIO International Convention and a series of annual conferences that drive partnerships, investment, and progress within the sector.

- To advocate for our industry, BIO is organized into 2 different sectors to represent our members and their goals:

Emerging Biotech Companies

Health Biotechnology

Partnering™ @ London Life Sciences Week

BIO Partnering™ @ London Life Sciences Week

- November 16–19 — BIO's dedicated meeting space at the One Aldwych hotel, London
- Self-schedule in-person meetings at One Aldwych, at your own location or virtually by Zoom
- Open to qualified companies and investors. No Jefferies or other LLSW registration required
- Collaborate with colleagues under one company profile, with requests and calendars in one place
- Register and start building your meeting schedule at llsw.bio.org
- The partnering system opens early October

BIO and the BIO Partnering system are not affiliated with the Jefferies Global Healthcare Conference or other concurrent London Life Sciences Week events.
